In general, there are a few golden rules to negotiation that can ensure that you don't get into a situation where you have to say "Sorry". Here are a few do's and don'ts of negotiation that you should always remember: Do make sure you ask for the right price for your time and product. This is really important if you want to avoid unnecessary costs. Do be fair and honest in a negotiation. Both people in the negotiation need to be honest in order to ensure that they will not get into any kind of a dispute or misunderstanding at the end of the negotiation. You need to put your best foot forward. Try not to show any emotion as this may lead to miscommunication between you and the business owner. It is always wise to keep your cool if you find yourself in a difficult situation in the negotiation. Keep things even and do try and make your negotiations as smooth as
